URGENT ALERT TO ALL MEMBERS

Dear members,

On 9 Dec, a fellow staff member was arrested, his home searched and interrogated at a police station before he was released on bail.

He was accused of allegedly making remarks in his 8 Dec lecture (10:30-13:30) that incited students to participate in 9 Dec demonstrations. Purportedly, the alleged remarks were secretly recorded by 'an informer' in the class and sent to 'high authorities,' who ordered the arrest.

The incident indicates a "new reality" where lectures may be under surveillance. Therefore, we urge extreme caution in classrooms, while we investigate the incident and determine next appropriate steps.

Stay vigilant!

Sincerely,

Isaac Mahenge

UDOMASA General Secretary
